Students Book Corporation Director Biographies – 2024-2025

Cameron Dickey, Chair

Cameron is an undergraduate student from Medical Lake, WA, working towards his degree in both Finance and Accounting. Throughout his undergraduate education he has become more rooted in the WSU community by getting more involved. After graduation, he plans on going directly into the work force and pursuing his CPA certification. Cameron enjoys being able to hang out with friends, read books, play tennis, and practice cooking in his free time. Cameron is grateful for the opportunity to serve on the board and subsequently serve the WSU community.

Mason Menser, Secretary

Mason is an undergraduate computer science student from Issaquah, Washington. He hopes to pursue a career in the machine learning and artificial intelligence industry. Currently, he works for the Institute for Shock Physics and as a research assistant for Dr. Haifeng Wang. Off campus, he is the VP of Scholarship for his fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon. In his spare time, he loves to workout, play soccer, and read. Mason is excited to improve student experience and improve the wider WSU community through his time at the SBC. Go Cougs!

Thomas Stanton, Treasurer

Tom is a senior at WSU, majoring in Accounting and Management Information Systems (MIS). Originally from Bellingham, Washington, where he has developed a deep appreciation for the great outdoors. With a passion for numbers and technology, he is working toward a future as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).

Outside the classroom, he is involved in campus activities, participating in clubs, and serving on the Student Book Corporation (SBC) board. His adventurous spirit takes him beyond academics, whether he's mountain biking, exploring on his motorcycle, or engaging in sports.

In his free time, Tom enjoys reading, playing sports, and spending time outdoors, always drawn to the natural beauty that reminds him of home. He is eager to use his experiences and passions to benefit fellow students and make a lasting impact on the Cougar community through his role on the SBC.

Madelyn Wambolt, Vice Chair

Madelyn is an undergraduate student from Boise, Idaho, working towards her Apparel Merchandising degree with a minor in French Language and has recently obtained a certificate in Global Learning. With her degree, Madelyn intends to pursue a future career as an International Merchandising Planner and Buyer. Outside of classes, Madelyn enjoys participating in campus activities and enjoys her work as a Tutor for the Athletics Department. Aside from campus activities, you can find Madelyn exploring Pullman with her 11-year-old Chihuahua/Dachshund dog.

In her spare time, she enjoys cooking, baking, reading and long-distance running. Madelyn feels her experience serving as a Student Officer for French Club and the McNair Scholars Student Club has been rewarding and instilled in her valuable leadership skills. Madelyn is excited to be able to benefit fellow students while being on the SBC and enhance Coug life!

Holly Yoo, Graduate Student Director

Holly is a PhD student in Political Science at the School of Politics, Philosophy, and Public Affairs. She is from Portland, OR and earned a MA degree in Government at John Hopkins University and BA degree in International Relations at Syracuse University. She has four years of experience working in higher education as an administrator and researcher and is committed to enhancing the student experience at WSU. Outside of schoolwork, Holly functions as a self-defense instructor and Taekwondo Master, focusing particularly on empowering women. She is happy to be more involved on campus through the SBC Board and to be a contributing member of the Coug community.

Lauren Cooper, Alternate Undergraduate Director

Lauren is currently a sophomore studying finance at Washington State University. She is excited to be back with the Students Book Corporation this year and help as much as she can to make choices that support and help all members of the school and community. She hopes to work towards becoming a voting member of the SBC this year, and to voice her opinions in a meaningful way.

James Harrison, Alternate Undergraduate Director

James is an undergraduate student from Kennewick, WA, working towards his degree in Accounting, Finance and Entrepreneurship with a minor in Economics. Throughout his collegiate experience he has been involved in the Carson College of Business as an Ambassador and a Teaching Assistant. After graduation he intends to pursue his CPA and CMA certifications along with a Masters in Accounting. In his free time James reads a variety of books, experiments in the kitchen, and builds Lego sets if available. Overall, James is thankful for the opportunity to serve the community of WSU as a member of the Student Book Corporation.

Julia Lee, Alternate Undergraduate Director

Julia Lee is an undergraduate student majoring in Computer Science. This year, she's taking on the role of Alternate Undergraduate Student Director at the SBC. She's also serving as the Industry Mentor Coordinator for the Society of Women Engineers (SWE) during the 2024-25 academic year. Julia has a strong interest in programming, database management, and informatics systems. After graduation, she plans to attend an iSchool. She enjoys traveling, hiking, exploring national parks, photography, and spending time with her cat. She is eager to get involved in campus activities and contribute to the community while helping fellow students. Through her various roles and interests, she hopes to positively impact the WSU community.

Paul Buckley, Faculty Director

Paul Buckley is a Professor in the Department of Chemistry at Washington State University and serves as the department's Director of Undergraduate Studies. He received his B.S. in Chemistry from Northern Arizona University, and his Ph.D. from the University of Colorado at Boulder in analytical and environmental chemistry. He also holds a bachelor's degree in Forestry from Northern Arizona University. His doctoral thesis emphasis was atmospheric chemistry, entailing studies of reaction rates of chemical compounds in the atmosphere, and field measurements of biogenically released compounds to the Arctic atmosphere.

He has held teaching positions at Hartwick College in upstate NY and Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston, ID. He has been full time with WSU Chemistry since 2015, along with a previous appointment at the campus reactor from 2003-2005. He has mentored undergraduate researchers in projects mostly focused on supercritical fluid extractions, and the mobility of mining-related heavy metal contaminants in the sediments of Lake Coeur d'Alene, ID. He also has work experience with Philips Petroleum in Bartlesville, OK, and the State of New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection.

He currently teaches in the General Chemistry program and has developed a unique preparatory chemistry class with a novel curricular design that he teaches every semester. His departmental, college, and university service includes serving on Faculty Senate, and the senate subcommittee on Academic Affairs. He also serves as the department's program assessment manager, and as the science representative and Chair for the teacher education committee in the Department of Teaching and Learning.

Sean Greene, Administrative Director

Sean is the Associate Vice Chancellor for Auxiliary Services for Student Affairs at Washington State University. Sean started his WSU career in 1999 and has served in various roles in Student Affairs, including positions in University Recreation, Compton Union Building, Housing and Dining Services.

In his current role, Sean provides leadership for Housing, Dining Services, Residence Life, Auxiliary Facility Services, Compton Union Building, and Cougar Health Services.

Sean has an MBA from Washington State University, an MA in Higher Education Administration from the University of Alabama, and BA in Finance from the University of Nebraska. Sean has affiliations with Association of College Unions International, the National Association of College & University Food Services, National Association College Auxiliary Services, Western Association of College & University Business Officers and National Intramural and Recreation Sports Association.

Victoria Murray, Administrative Director

Vicky is the Associate Vice President for Public Safety, Business Affairs and Operations within the Finance and Administration Division of Washington State University. Vicky's 40-year career at WSU includes a variety of roles in both academic areas as well as central administrative units, including positions in institutional research and human relations and resources. She has been part of the Finance and Administration team for over 25 years.

In her current role as Associate Vice President, Vicky provides administrative leadership for the Police Department, Environmental Health and Safety, Transportation Services, Beasley Coliseum, the Brelsford Visitor Center, and the Trademarks and Licensing Program. Additionally, she oversees the budget and planning activities for the Finance and Administration Division.

Vicky also serves on the Whitcom E-911 Executive Board and the Pullman Moscow Regional Airport Board. She is a member of the Athletics Council, the CUB Advisory Board, and the WSU Top Ten Senior Award Committee. She previously served on the Student's Book Corporation Board of Directors from 2005 – 2011 and was reappointed in 2016.

Vicky holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication from Washington State University, and her affiliations include the National Association of College and University Business Officers, the Western Association of College and University Business Officers, Washington Association of Public Records Officers, and the Society for Human Resource Management.
