5.11 Tuition and Fees

Part 1. Policy objectives

The tuition and fees policy of Minnesota State Colleges and Universities seeks to balance five values:

- a. Affordable access to higher education: Minnesota State will champion a quality affordable higher education that all Minnesotans can access.
- b. Equity: Minnesota State students taking similar academic programs are charged similar rates across Minnesota State colleges and universities.
- c. Transparency: Minnesota State students will know what they are paying for and how their total tuition and fee charges are calculated.
- ~~b-d.~~ Institutional Financial Sustainability: Minnesota State seeks to provide the resources needed for colleges and universities to support quality higher education and long term financial viability.
- ~~c-a. Equity: Minnesota State students taking similar academic programs are charged similar rates across Minnesota State colleges and universities.~~
- ~~d-a.~~ Transparency: Minnesota State students will know what they are paying for and how their total tuition and fee charges are calculated.
- e. Flexibility for innovation and emerging markets: Minnesota State seeks to support the flexibility to be innovative, respond to the marketplace, and address emerging program and course development requirements.

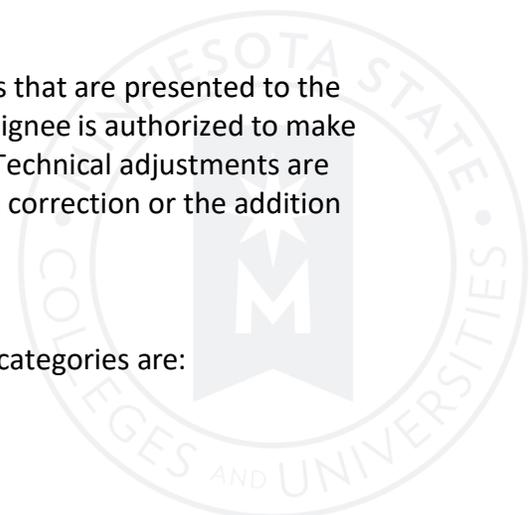

Part 2. Authority

Minnesota Statutes § 136F.06, Powers and Duties, and ~~Minnesota Statutes § 136F.70, Tuition; Fees; Activities Funds~~ provide that the Board of Trustees board shall set tuition, ~~and~~ fees, and refunds adopt suitable policies for the colleges and universities it governs. All colleges and universities shall charge tuition and fees consistent with Minnesota Statutes, board policies, and system procedures. The board shall approve the tuition and fee structure for all colleges and universities.

The chancellor may establish limits on tuition and fee rate increases that are presented to the board as part of the annual operating budget. The chancellor or designee is authorized to make any necessary technical adjustments to the tuition rates and fees. Technical adjustments are defined as changes in tuition and fee rates ~~which~~that are deemed a correction or the addition of a program rate for a new program established in the interim.

Part 3. Tuition

Tuition shall be charged by all colleges and universities. The tuition categories are:

- 39 a. Per credit
- 40 b. Banded
- 41 c. Differential course and program
- 42 d. Market driven

43

44 Each tuition category may include resident, reciprocity, and nonresident rates. All tuition must 45 be identified separately on a tuition and fee statement.

46

47 Part 4. Authorization and notice.

48

49 Subpart A. Authorization of required and campus discretionary fees.

50 The board authorizes ~~the following~~ four categories of fees to be charged to Minnesota State
51 students. The amount of the fees and how they are charged are determined by ~~a~~ each
52 college ~~and/or~~ university, subject to Minnesota statutes and board policy.

53

54 1. Required fees are in statute or established by board policy and are required to be
55 charged by all colleges and universities.

56

57 2. Campus discretionary fees are established by board policy and adopted at campus
58 discretion.

59

60 3. Personal property charges, service charges, and assessments are established by 61 board policy and adopted at campus discretion.

62

63 4. Revenue Fund fees are established in accordance with statutes, board policy, and 64 bond indenture.

65

66

67 Subpart B. Notice required

68 All fees must be identified separately on a tuition and fee statement. On an annual basis,
69 colleges and universities shall publish all fees that are charged to their students.

70

71 Part 5. Fees

72

73 Subpart A. Required fees

74 There are five required fees:

75

76 1. Senior citizen fee in lieu of tuition

77

78 2. Parking fee, permits, or charges

79

80 3. Late fee

81

82 4. Payment plan fee

83

84 5. Statewide student association fee

85

86 All colleges and universities shall charge these fees consistent with Minnesota Statutes,
87 board policies, and system procedures.

88

89 Subpart B. Campus discretionary fees

90

91 The board authorizes the campus discretionary fee categories and approves the fee
92 maximums. The system office shall review, report, and make recommendations to the 93 board regarding fee maximum levels every ~~two~~ five years.

83
84 The authorized campus discretionary fees are:

- 85 1. Application fee
- 86 2. Credit for prior learning assessment fee
- 87 3. Student life/activity fee
- 88 4. Athletics fee
- 89 5. Health services fee
- 90 6. Special events fee
- 91 7. Residential learning community fee
- 92 8. Technology fee
- 93 9. New student orientation fee

94 10. Sustainability fee

95
96 Colleges and universities may establish policies to charge campus discretionary
97 fees. These fees are not to exceed the maximum amount approved by the board
98 and published as an attachment to board policy. If an institution has multiple 99 campuses or sites, they may choose to assess the fees on a campus by campus or 100 site by site basis.

101
102 Subpart C. Personal property charges, service charges, and assessments.

103 Colleges and universities may charge students the cost of property retained by the student
104 and services received by the student. The allowable charge must be based on actual costs.
105 Colleges and universities may also assess charges to discourage certain behaviors.

106
107 Subpart D. Revenue fund facility fees.

108 Adequate fees must be charged for the use of revenue fund facilities to meet the 109 requirements of Minn~~esota~~ Stat~~utes~~ §§136F.93 and 136F.95 and the Master Indenture of 110 Trust. The fees must be sufficient to cover debt, operating cost~~s~~, and all repair and 111 replacement costs, and reserves.

112
113 There are two types of revenue fund fees:

- 114 1. Revenue fund fees. Colleges and universities shall charge revenue fund fees for 115 facilities that were constructed, renovated or acquired using revenue bonds or 116 facilities that the board designated as part of the revenue fund. Revenue fund fees
117 include but are not limited to:
 - 118 a. Room and board fees
 - 119 b. Student union facilities fees
 - 120 c. Wellness center and recreation facility fees
 - 121 d. Parking ramp and surface lot facility fees
 - 122 e. Other revenue fund fees for eligible projects as may be approved by the 123 board
- 124 2. Revenue fund fees charged for use of facilities. Colleges and universities shall charge
125 fees for the use of revenue fund facilities, which must be reported to the board as 126 part of the annual operating budget. On an annual basis, colleges and universities

127 shall publish all fee schedules or explanation of fees that are charged to their 128 students for revenue fund facilities. Revenue fund fees include but are not limited to 129 event or facility usage fees, service charges, and equipment charges. The president
130 of the college or university shall have final approval on all fees and subsequent rates
131 for the use of revenue fund facilities.

132
133 Part 6. Student Consultation

134 All tuition and fees are subject to the student consultation requirements in as defined by
135 ~~Board Policy~~ ~~2.3 Student Involvement in Decision-making and associated system procedures.~~
