PRESIDENTS' RATIONALE FOR NOMINATION

(Feel free to include a separate page if desired.):

Mr. Ray Beck is a local, regional and state wide leader who brings broad reaching influence and potential friends to the college who are able to help CNCC further its strategic goals and those of CCCS. These friends include current and former local elected officials, city and county leaders, state legislators and business, industry and community service representatives. He also provides expertise and experience in energy and aviation, both of high value to CNCC given the volatility in these economies here on the Western slope.

Mr. Beck is currently the founder and Chair of the Joint Organizations Leading Transitions (JOLT); Club 20 co-chair for the Transportation Policy Committee and membership chair; Associated Governments of Northwest Colorado (AGNC) Economic Development Board member and advisory member for CNCC's aviation program. Mr. Beck is also the former Moffat County Commissioner; Mayor of the city of Craig; Two term/eight year Craig city council member; AGNC past chair, and; Past CNCC Foundation board member who, among other achievements, is the author of the existing CNCC Foundation bylaws.
