Registration & Student Support

This info is to provide a credit retention update from the PIE office which shows positive trends for both our full and part-time students. These are official IPEDS retention rates calculated as fall-to-fall retention for first-time, full-time students. Our most recently published cohort is the Fall 22 cohort (retained through Fall 23). While there are many ways to look at retention, using this IPEDS measure allows for consistency over time and consistency with external publications. The table below has our rates over time, along with the four-year average, which is the required disclosure for the federal Student-Right-to-Know Act. HCC’s credit student retention has rose by 5.6% over the last four years to 67%.

First-time, Full-time Fall-to-Fall Retention Rates

Undergraduate Cohort	406	458	440	444	476
Fall- Year 2
Enrolled	236	266	264	257	292
Completed	17	17	9	19	29
First year retention rate	62.3%	61.8%	62.0%	62.2%	67.4%
Four-year average retention rate: 63.3%

Source: IPEDS Fall Enrollment

The first-time, part-time rate is also calculated by IPEDS, but is not published as widely or used for the same purposes as the first-time, full-time rate. However, we have seen growth here, and given that such a large proportion of our undergraduate population is part time, this is a relevant statistic for us.

First-time, Part-time Fall-to-Fall Retention Rates

	Fall 2018	Fall 2019	Fall 2020	Fall 2021	Fall 2022
Undergraduate Cohort	444	284	223	176	231
Still enrolled + completed	217	131	109	91	129
First year retention rate	48.9%	46.1%	48.9%	51.7%	55.8%

Source: IPEDS Fall Enrollment

For the Fall 2023 cohort (retention through Fall 2024), within the MACC, HCC is tied for the sixth-highest full-time retention rate (along with Chesapeake and Harford) and has the third-highest part-time retention rate.

Institution Name	Full-time retention rate	Part-time retention rate

Registration and Student Support also conducted a pilot program in the fall of 2024 that targeted a small group of at-risk students, those with below a 2.5 high school GPA, to provide on-going and intentional communication via text. Specifically, the Student Support Advisors tailored weekly support messages, including reminders to utilize mental health resources around midterms and finals. The office is currently in the process of collecting completion and retention data to determine the impact of this outreach.

A note from our past PTK Vice President and 2024 Hites Transfer Scholarship recipient, Haley Himes, who now attends Frostburg University. Haley says, “I am loving Frostburg in downtown. I finished the fall semester with a 4.0 GPA and was on the Dean's list. Then, I received an email from Frostburg's chapter of the National Society of Leadership and Success which only a small percentage of Frostburg students get accepted to and only 8% of students nationwide get accepted into. So, I am very excited about that.”

College Advancement

Becky McDermott, our current Director of Grants Development, will be leaving the College. Becky's last day will be February 14. While we are sad to see her go, we want to express our deepest gratitude for her incredible contributions.

Becky has been a valued member of our team for over five years, starting as the Grants Development Administrative Office Associate and later moving into roles as Development Coordinator and, most recently, Director of Grants Development. In each position, she made a lasting impact, bringing a positive attitude, strong work ethic, and sense of humor. Becky's commitment to our mission and the College has been truly outstanding, and she will be deeply missed by all of us.

We're also excited to announce some role changes within our team. Jess Miller, our former Development Coordinator, will step into the role of Director of Grants Development. Jess has consistently demonstrated dedication and skill in her previous role, and we are thrilled to see her bring that same passion and expertise to this new opportunity. Cheyenne Herson, formerly our External Relations/Advancement Communications Coordinator, will now serve as our new Development Coordinator. Cheyenne has shown exceptional ability to connect with our community and bring fresh, creative ideas to the table, and we're confident she'll thrive in this new position.

III. YEAR-OVER-YEAR AWARD COMPARISON (FY02 – FY24)

Call for Entry

2025 Wilson & HCC Faculty Exhibition, Shared Stories
Cooley Gallery, Wilson College

Exhibition Prompt

This year's exhibition will center on Wilson's spring ArtsFest '25 theme, Shared Stories. ArtsFest is an annual celebration of the arts in our community, showcasing the remarkable art, artists, and artistic opportunities at Wilson. ArtsFest '25 will run from April 7 – 11, 2025. As part of ArtsFest '25, our Cooley show will center on community Shared Stories through shared experiences, participation, practice, cooperation, collaboration, presence, and engagement. Work need not be narrative. Think of human experience, the stories of who we are, what we are, shared hopes, dreams, anxieties, perspectives, etc. As well all know, art is central to creating and reflecting community. For this show, we invite participating artists to reflect on and share collective stories & experiences, whatever those may be.

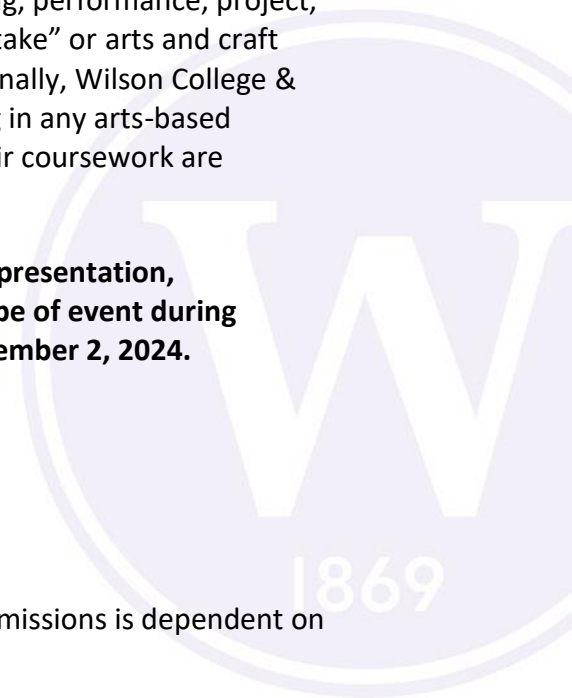

In addition to submitting artwork under the theme of Shared Stories, we invite each of you to participate in Wilson's ArtsFest '25 programming. We are seeking community members who are interested in sharing their experience, expertise, and work. Appropriate events can be in the form of a presentation/reading, performance, project, workshop/class, exhibition, immersive experience, "make and take" or arts and craft type experience, or any other type of arts-based event. Additionally, Wilson College & HCC art & design students and faculty who have been engaging in any arts-based research, experiences, or projects/assignments as a part of their coursework are encouraged to share this type of work as well.

Please complete the following form if you'd like to propose a presentation, performance, project, workshop/class, exhibition, or other type of event during ArtsFest 2025. We would like to have this information by December 2, 2024.
