Hi Chantell,

Thank you for reaching out! I would be happy to assist There are forms that exist that every Veteran has when they separate from the military and are used as the standard to verify eligibility for many of benefits for Veterans.

First, there is a DD-214 form, which is the typical form used by the military to show their MOS (job), any training/schools they have attended and where they were stationed. These can be difficult to read, but the information is there, if you can adequately interpret it. Below is an example.

Additionally, there is a Joint Services Transcript Form (JST) that translates military service into civilian language. This form has been created with collaboration from the American Council on Education (ACE). Here is their link as well and it is a great reference point whenever anyone is attempting to translate military experience in order to award credit; The ACE Military Guide.

These would be the two forms that a Veteran would likely use to show evidence of electrician training/work experience. There are more obscure forms that exist and are used under different circumstances to provide proof of experience or training, but the OPLC would probably only see those on a very rare, if ever, occasion and it would be in addition to the DD-214. And absolutely as an individual's specific situation warranted.

I hope this helps, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions and give a call if it you feel like it would be easier to explain over the phone

Subject: Administrative Rules for occupational licensing based on military education, training, and experience

Hi Erica – I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to ask for your guidance. I am assisting the boards at OPLC to adopt rules for licensure based on military experience, training, and education purusant to RSA 332-G:7. Can you tell me how an applicant would document their military education, experience, and training? For example, how would an individual seeking licensure as an electrician document prior military experience in this field? Does the military provide a standard form? Apologies if I am not using the correct military acronyms, etc. I am happy to talk with you if that would help explain my question. My cell is 603-738-2816.

I am meeting with the electrician's board on April 1, 2025, and my deadline submit this information for their meeting agenda is March 15, 2025.

Thanks again for your help and direction.

Best regards,
