By signing below, Customer agrees and acknowledges that it is seeking to administer NHA certification examinations to its candidates prior to the full completion of externship portion of the organization’s training program for the specific programs selected below and that it will abide by the following requirements when doing the didactic (coursework) portion of the training program and prior to completion of the required externship, provided each of the below conditions has been met:

- the candidate has successfully completed the didactic (coursework) portion of his/her training program, including passing a comprehensive final exam, before sitting for the certification examination;
- the candidate completes his/her externship within 90 days of sitting for the exam.

Customer agrees to notify NHA immediately, in writing (“Notice”), if:

- any candidate who, pursuant to this addendum, took an exam prior to completion of the externship, fails to complete the externship and training program within 90 days of his/her exam date; or
- any candidate fails to adhere to the above conditions.

Customer further understands that NHA reserves the right to revoke the certification of any candidate who provides NHA with inaccurate information, including with respect to the conditions above, or who does not successfully complete his/her externship or training program within the required timeframe.

NHA also reserves the right to disallow Customer’s continued participation in this eligibility exception if Customer:

- does not require all participating candidates to abide by the above conditions;
- fails to provide the Notice required above to NHA in a timely manner; or
- the Customer Agreement, to which this addendum is attached, is terminated by either Customer or NHA.

Please check the applicable NHA certificate exams that you want this addendum to apply to. NOTE: You should only check those exams where your applicable training program includes an externship and where you want to test prior to the externship:
