This software allows our chemical inventory to be accurate, organized and informative. Every in-house chemical is barcoded and inputted in the management system. This allows lab staff and faculty to manage and coordinate relevant federal and state protocols for the safe handling and storage of chemicals. Which in turn facilitates the safe handling and use of these chemicals by our students in their various science lab courses and is crucial to student learning outcomes and meeting specific course objectives.

What procurement process or bid waiver was used and why? The College used the bid waiver exemption provided for the information technology resources in accordance with FLDOE Rule 6A-14.0734(2)(g) and College Procedure 6AHx2-6.34 which cites the exception to the requirement to solicit competitive offers.

Was that return on investment not met, met, or exceeded and how? This return on investment was exceeded in the quality of the safe handling and use of these chemicals by Faculty and Staff, which resulted in consistent student engagement in scientific experimentation and study.

Does this directly or indirectly feed one of the Social Enterprise tactics and how? This directly impacts Empower Student Development as these labs reinforce concepts and theory taught in the lecture course. Students learn valuable lessons in problem solving and critical thinking through experimentation.

Did the vendor amend Broward College’s legal terms and conditions [to be answered by the Legal Office] if the College’s standard contract was used and was this acceptable to the Legal Office?
