From the Office of the CEO

State medical board members and staff work very hard, day in and day out, yet the long hours and sacrifice they put in as distinguished public servants are not always publicly recognized. Each year, FSMB's annual awards ceremony is an opportunity for peers to thank them, recognizing individuals who have excelled in protecting the public through medical regulation.

FSMB's annual call to state medical boards and others in the medical regulatory community to nominate individuals for FSMB awards is underway. I encourage you to give this opportunity some consideration and to also ask others at your board or organization who might be worthy of such a nomination.

The awards, which include the Award of Merit, Leadership Award, Distinguished Service Award and Lifetime Achievement Award, are determined by an Awards Committee and will be presented at FSMB's Annual Meeting in Seattle in April 2025. Nominations are due by Dec. 16, 2024.

FSMB seeks nominations for elected leadership positions, committees

FSMB has opened its annual call to its member boards and others to participate in a variety of elected and appointed leadership positions for the coming year.
